

Alan Turing Waste Disposal and Recycling

Type	Method	Example
General Waste Non-recyclable packaging from deliveries of lab consumables and equipment Paper towel after handwash or cleaning non-hazardous spillage	Black bin liner House services remove these regularly from the lab Please be considerate and do not over-fill bags
Paper, plastic bottle, cans recycle	Small paper items: Fold flat and take to recycling bin in the corridor. Cardboard: the cardboard bins in the waste yard
Metal waste recycle	Metal waste cage in Schuster waste room
Mixed glass bottles & jars	Recycling bins in the waste yard NO broken glass
Small battery recycle	Battery recycle bucket, in the corridors on all floors

Waste yard for Alan Turing building (46 on map)

Location of the waste yard: the blue rectangle on map

Route to Alan Turing waste yard from Schuster building (54) loading bay

